

Quakertown Community High School's Fourth Annual

COLLEGE FAIR

March 21, 11 a.m. to 1:50 p.m.

By Gary Weckselblatt

Approximately 1,200 Quakertown Community High School students will have an opportunity to learn about the next stage of academic life during the Fourth Annual College Fair, March 21 from 11 a.m. to 1:50 p.m.

Seventy to 80 representatives from college, universities and branches of the military are expected to attend the event for juniors, sophomores and freshmen.

"I love running the college fair as it gets students thinking about their future," said Eric Gozzard, a high school counselor and the fair's organizer.

"Some underclassmen do not fully realize the importance of their academic efforts early on. What they do in ninth and 10th grade counts! Their decisions are opening or closing doors of opportunity."

"The college fair is a hands-on reminder that their future is coming fast, and they need to prepare for it."

With the School Board's initiatives to increase the college and career readiness of District students, the fair is an opportunity for institutions of higher learning to bring exposure of their offerings to Quakertown's high-achieving student population.

If a college, trade school or military branch is interested in participating,

Gozzard can be reached at egozzard@qcsd.org.
