

QuEd up for Education

People and programs impacting our QCSD community

Lessons in Music

Quakertown Community School District students have the opportunity to improve their craft with summer lessons from the district's superb music teachers. Frank Parker, Joe Santanello and Todd Silvius are giving lessons Mondays and Tuesdays this summer, with Norm Stull subbing for Parker this week. Instruments include the clarinet, saxophone, trumpet and baritone horn. For the first time, piano was added to the summer agenda, under the instruction of Silvius.

Enjoy the photos!

