

People and programs impacting our QCSD community

The gang's all here

Quakertown area youngsters enjoyed learning the fundamentals of baseball during a camp at the Sixth Grade Center from June 13-15. Quakertown Community High School baseball coach Jon Pallone directed his coaches and players to drill the young students on the finer points of the game, including sharpening up their batting and defensive skills.

