

CLEARING THE AIR ABOUT VAPING - A DISCUSSION PANEL

December 17th

Session 1: 9:45 AM
9th Grade Students

Session 2: 11:45 AM
11th Grade Students

Quakertown High School Auditorium

All parents are invited and need RSVP to Ms. Jill West, jwest@qcsd.org
no later than Dec. 13th

MEET THE PANELIST

Dr. Nicole Yoder is a doctor with St. Luke's Hospital specializing pulmonary diseases of the lung. Dr. Yoder has a wealth of new information on how vaping affects your lungs.

Mia Giordano is the smoking cessation program coordinator at St. Luke's Hospital providing resources and education to vaping addictions

Tom Gannon is a prosecutor with the Bucks County District Attorney's Office. He specializes in narcotics prosecutions and familiar with THC vaping contrabands in schools.

Lisa Gaier is the magistrate for Quakertown District Court and also a practicing attorney. Judge Gaier is responsible for all the citations related to vaping.

Officer Robert Lee has been employed by Quakertown Borough Police since 2004 & the last five years as the School Resource Officer. He has witnessed the problematic vaping trend at the schools.